HOW WE WORK?

Chúng tôi làm việc như thế nào?

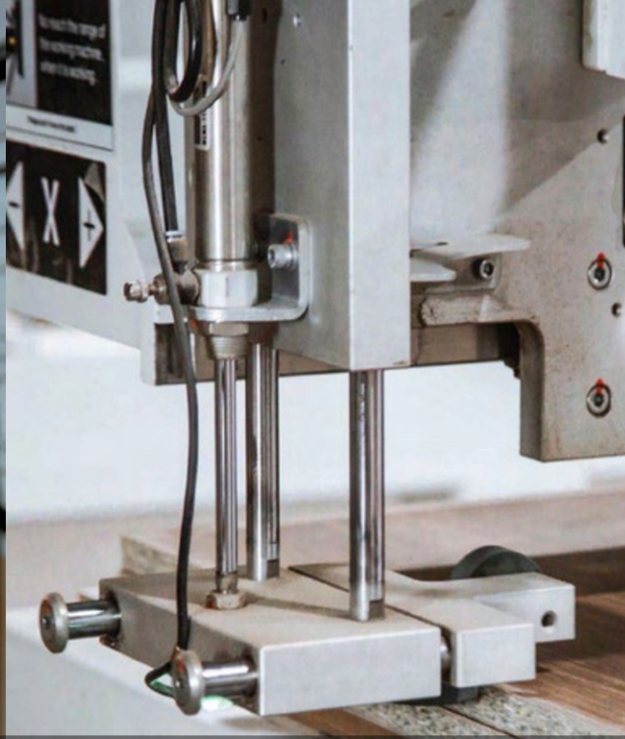

We always bring wholehearted dedication and responsibility to every stage of execution for every project entrusted to us.

Our professional workflow is standardized throughout the entire organization - from the leadership team and office staff to the production processes and working practices of factory workers and skilled craftsmen.

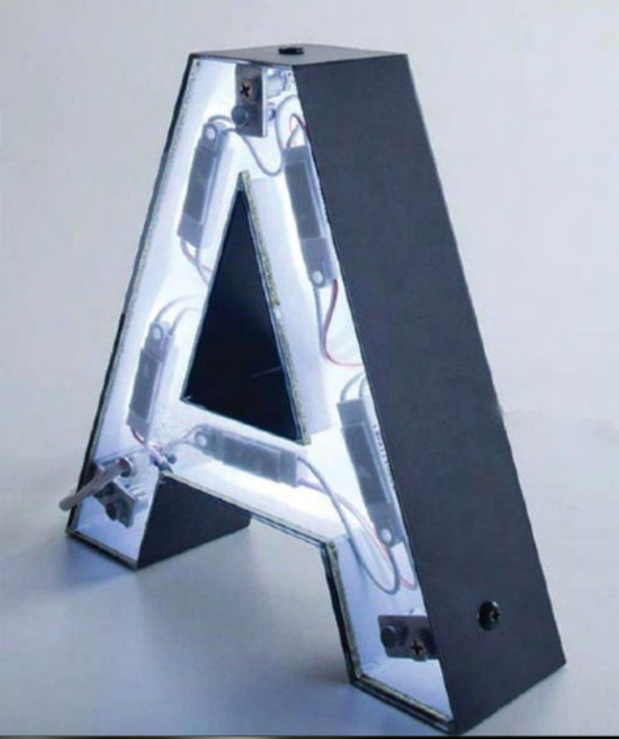

AUTOMATED PRODUCTION LINE

Hexagon constantly updates and proactively keeps up with advanced global technological trends, while investing in a range of modern machinery and equipment. We are now equipped with industry-leading production lines for engineered wood products and precision stone fabrication.

CABINET VISION

To support industrial-scale manufacturing, Hexagon integrates Cabinet Vision into CNC machining and production processes for engineered wood products. This advanced CAD/CAM solution improves accuracy and quality while reducing production lead times.

LOGO PRODUCTION TECHNOLOGY

We truly believe that a logo is more than a visual identity—it is a defining expression of a brand's values. Hexagon delivers distinctive, custom-made brand signage and logo solutions, combining striking forms, meticulous craftsmanship and refined finishes to capture the unique character of every brand.

PRINTING TECHNOLOGY

Hexagon's production facilities are equipped with eco-friendly MIMAKI printers imported directly from Japan. Supporting a wide range of materials, including PP, backlit film and Hiflex, this advanced printing technology delivers sharp, vibrant graphics with consistently refined finishes.

MECHANICAL MANUFACTURING TECHNOLOGY

At Hexagon, social and environmental responsibility is integral to the way we operate. Our optimized closed-loop metal fabrication system enables rigorous quality control—from material selection through every stage of production—ensuring full compliance with industry standards while minimizing environmental impact.

VENEER MATERIAL

Veneer is a thin layer of natural wood sliced from solid timber such as oak, walnut and ash. Valued for its versatility and authentic grain, it is widely used in interior design and decorative applications. Typically around 1–2 mm thick, the veneer is processed and bonded to engineered wood substrates such as MFC, MDF, HDF or finger-jointed timber to create durable panels with the natural beauty of solid wood.

LIGHTING SOLUTIONS

Alongside distinctive design features, lighting plays a vital role in shaping the character of an interior. Beyond functionality, Hexagon's lighting solutions enhance visual appeal, create focal points and evoke emotion throughout the space.

PAINTING TECHNOLOGY

Complementing our advanced printing capabilities, Hexagon has invested in a modern, fully integrated paint finishing system. State-of-the-art equipment enables us to increase production efficiency, maintain strict quality control and consistently deliver products to the highest standards.

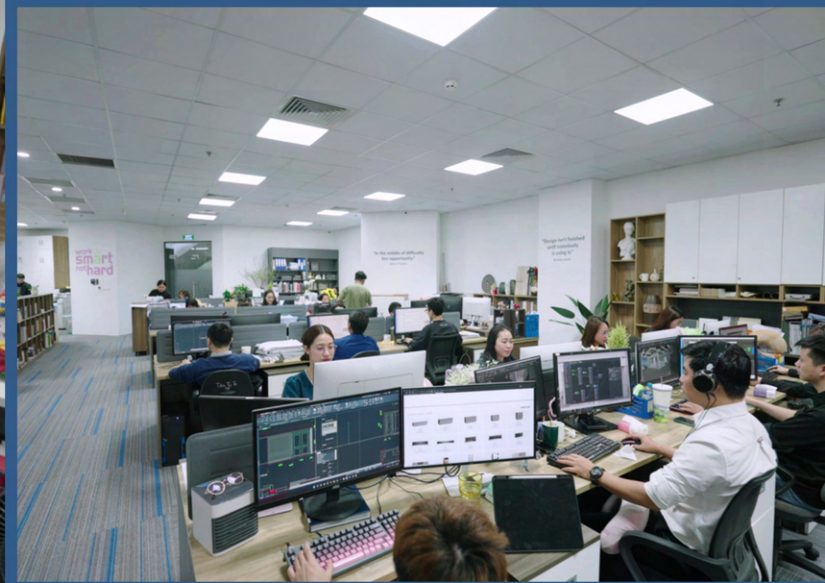

500⁺

OFFICE AND FACTORY STAFFS

Beyond the business endeavors, Hexagon actively participate in social activities and projects, while also prioritizing the well-being of our employees. We aspire to create a youthful and forward-thinking business environment, building a modern corporate culture that embraces innovation.

CERTIFICATE

Together with strategic partners possessing internationally recognized quality certification systems and numerous prestigious design awards, Hexagon has clearly demonstrated its professional capabilities and product quality. These accolades not only affirm its service standards but also reflect Hexagon's commitment and responsibility in providing sustainable, integrated, and reliable interior design solutions, thereby building strong trust with partners and clients in every project.

In 2024, Hexagon was honored to receive the award for the most favored employer brand.
